Dues payments to the Kenai Peninsula Builders Association are NOT deductible as charitable contributions for federal tax purposes. However, a percentage of the dues payments may be deductible by members as an ordinary and necessary business expense, subject to an exclusion for lobbying activity - check with your accountant. Because a portion of your dues is used for lobbying by the National Association of Home builders (approximately 12% or $18.00) and the Alaska State Home Building Association (approximately 83% or $83.00) a total of $101.00 is not deductible for your income tax purposes.
